Follow-up to the outcome of the Millennium Summit

Draft resolution submitted by the President of the General Assembly

Follow-up to the outcome of the Millennium Summit

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 55/2 of 8 September 2000, by which it adopted the United Nations Millennium Declaration as the outcome of the Millennium Summit of the United Nations, held at Headquarters from 6 to 8 September 2000 as well as its resolutions 55/162 of 14 December 2000 and 56/95 of 14 December 2001 on follow-up,

Recognizing the important contributions made by the conferences and special sessions, in particular the Fourth Ministerial Conference of the World Trade Organization, held in Doha, the International Conference on Financing for Development, held in Monterrey and the World Summit on Sustainable Development, held in Johannesburg,

Reaffirming the importance of the implementation and follow-up of the Millennium Declaration in a comprehensive, integrated, coordinated and balanced manner at national, regional and international levels,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the United Nations Millennium Declaration;[1]

2. Recognizes the uneven progress made so far in achieving the objectives agreed upon in the Millennium Declaration and urges Member States to continue to undertake with determination appropriate measures towards its implementation;

3. Invites the organizations and agencies of the United Nations system, the Bretton Woods institutions and the World Trade Organization and encourages other interested parties, including civil society and the private sector, to continue to pursue vigorously the achievement of the objectives and goals contained in the Millennium Declaration;

[1] A/57/270 and Corr.1.

4. Also invites the organizations and agencies of the United Nations system, the Bretton Woods institutions and the World Trade Organization to engage in the review of the implementation of the Millennium Declaration and, in this context, requests the Secretary-General to include in his next report information on the support to be provided by the United Nations system in this regard;

5. Calls upon Member States to support, as appropriate, the measures set forth in the thematic sections of the report on preventing armed conflict, and the treatment and prevention of major diseases, including HIV/AIDS, malaria and tuberculosis;

6. Decides to consider, at its fifty-eighth session, convening a high-level plenary meeting during the sixtieth session of the General Assembly on the review of the implementation of the Millennium Declaration and consideration of the quinquennial comprehensive report of the Secretary-General on the progress achieved towards implementing the Millennium Declaration;

7. Also decides that the review process of the implementation of the development goals contained in the Millennium Declaration will be considered within the framework of the integrated and coordinated follow-up to the outcomes of the major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic and social fields while taking into account the need to attach more importance, coherence and visibility to the implementation of the Millennium Declaration and its review process;

8. Invites the United Nations system, in cooperation with Member States, to promote awareness of the Millennium Declaration, and the development goals contained therein, through increased dissemination of information and widespread publicity;

9. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its fifty-eighth session the item entitled "Follow-up to the outcome of the Millennium Summit".
